

I do not want you to discard the "do not call" list. The ability for persons to call my telephone number without any regulation is an infringement of my privacy. If I did not have a telephone or pay my telephone bill they could not call me. I pay for my phone for MY use, not anyone else's.